1 If I was a Blackbird

I am a young sailor, my story is sad,
Though once I was carefree and a brave sailor lad,
I courted a lassie by night and by day,
Oh but now she has left me,
And sailed far away.

(Chorus) Oh, if I was a blackbird could whistle and sing,
I'd follow the vessel my true love sails in,
And in the top riggin' I would there build my nest,
And I'd flutter my wings o'er her lilly white breast.

Or if I was a scholar and could handle the pen Once secret love letter to my true love I'd send And tell of my sorrow, my grief and my pain Since she's gone and left me
In yon flowery glen.

(Chorus)
I sailed o'er the ocean, my fortune to seek Though I missed her caress and her kiss on my cheek

I returned and I told her my love was still warm but she turned away lightly
And great was her scorn.

(Chorus)
I offered to take her to Donnybrook Fair
And to buy her fine ribbons to tie up her hair
I offered to marry and to stay by her side
But she says in the morning
She sails with the tide.

(Chorus)
My parents, they chide me, oh they will not agree Saying that me and my false love, married should never be

Oh but let them deprive me, or let them do what they will

While there's breath in my body
She's the one that I love still

(Chorus)

2 Wild Mountain Thyme

D A D
Oh the summer time is comin'
G D
And the trees are sweetly bloomin'
G D Bm
And the wild mountain thyme
Em G
Grows around the bloomin' heather
D G D
Will you go, lassie, go?

G D
And we'll all go together
G D Bm
To pluck wild mountain thyme
Em G
All around the bloomin' heather
Will you go, lassie, go?

I will build my love a bower
By yon pure crystal fountain
And on it I will pile
All the flowers of the mountain
Will you go, lassie, go?

| (Chorus)

If my true love she were gone
I'd surely find another
Where the wild mountain thyme
Grows around the bloomin' heather
Will you go, lassie, go?

| (Chorus)

I will roam through the wild and the deep glens so dreary and return with my spoils, to the bower of my dearie
Will you go, Lassie, go?

| (Chorus)

3 The Minstrel Boy

The minstrel boy to the war is gone,
In the ranks of death you'll find him
His father's sword he hath girded on,
And his wild harp slung behind him

"Land of Song!" cried the warrior bard, (Should) "Tho' all the world betrays thee,
One sword, at least, thy rights shall guard,
One faithful harp shall praise thee!"

The Minstrel fell! But the foeman's chain Could not bring that proud soul under The harp he loved ne'er spoke again,
For he tore its chords asunder

And said "No chains shall sully thee, Thou soul of love and bravery!
Thy songs were made for the pure and free
They shall never sound in slavery!"

4 Fields of Athenry

<sup>D</sup> By a lonely prison wall, <sup>G</sup> I heard a young girl <sup>D</sup> <sup>A</sup> call—ing <sup>D</sup> Michael, they have taken you away, <sup>G</sup> <sup>A</sup> <sup>D</sup> For you stole Trevelyan's corn, <sup>G</sup>

<sup>D</sup> Low lie the fields of Athen—ry <sup>D</sup> Where once we watched the (*Bm) small free birds <sup>A</sup> fly <sup>D</sup> Our love was on the wing <sup>G</sup>

By a lonely prison wall, I heard a young man calling
Nothing matters, Mary, when you're free
Against the famine and the crown,
I rebelled, they cut me down
Now you must raise our child with dignity
[Chorus]
By a lonely harbor wall, she watched the last star fall
As the prison ship sailed out against the sky
For she lived to hope and pray for her love in Botany Bay
It's so lonely round the fields of Athenry

| [Chorus]

5 The Fox

The Fox went out on a chilly night
He prayed for the moon to give him light
For he'd many a mile to go that night
Before he reached the town-o, town-o, town-o He'd many a mile to go that night before he reached the town-o

He ran till he came to the farmer's pen
The ducks and the geese were kept therein
He said "a couple of you are gonna grease my chin,
Before I leave this town "
Said a couple of you are gonna grease my chin, before i leave this town-o

He grabbed the great goose by the neck
And he threw a duck across his back
And he didn't mind the quack quack
And the legs all dangling down-o
He didn't mind the quack quack
And the legs all dangling down-o

The old grey woman jumped out of bed
She ran to the window and popped out her head, Crying John, John, the great goose is gone
And the fox is on the town-o, town-o, town-o John, John, the great goose is gone and the fox is on the town-o

He ran till he came to his nice warm den
And there were the little ones, eight, nine, ten Sayin' Daddy, Daddy, better go back again
For it must be a mighty fine town-o, town-o, town-o
Daddy, Daddy, go back again for it must be a mighty fine town-o

The fox and his wife, without any strife
Cut up the goose with a fork and a knife
They never had such a supper in their life
And the little ones chewed on the bones-o, bones-o, bones-o
They never had such a supper in their life
And the little ones chewed on the bones

6 Rising of the moon

And come <sup>D</sup>tell me Sean O'Farrell, tell me <sup>A</sup>why you hurry so Husha <sup>G</sup>buachaill hush and <sup>D</sup>listen and his <sup>A</sup>cheeks were all a <sup>D</sup>glow
I bear orders from the captain, get you <sup>A</sup>ready quick and soon
For the <sup>G</sup>pikes must be <sup>D</sup>together by the <sup>A</sup>rising of <sup>D</sup>the moon

(Chorus)

By the <sup>D</sup>rising of the moon, by the <sup>A</sup>rising of the moon
<sup>D</sup>of the moon

And come tell me Sean O'Farrell, where the gath'rin is to be At the old spot by the river quite well known to you and me
One more word for signal token, whistle out the marchin' tune
With your pike upon your shoulder by the rising of the moon

By the rising of the moon, by the rising of the moon
With your pike upon your shoulder by the rising
of the moon

Out from many a mud wall cabin eyes were watching through the night
Many a manly heart was beating for the blessed warning light
Murmurs rang along the valleys to the banshees lonely croon
And a thousand pikes were flashing by the rising
of the moon

(Chorus)

By the rising of the moon, by the rising of the moon
And a thousand pikes were flashing by the rising
of the moon

All along that singing river that black mass of men was seen
High above their shining weapons flew their own beloved green Death to every foe and traitor! Whistle out the marching tune
And hoorah, me boys, for freedom, 'tis the rising
of the moon
(Chorus)
Tis the rising of the moon, 'tis the rising of the moon
And hurrah, me boys, for freedom, 'tis the rising

7 Lily the Pink

Now here's a story, a little bit gory
A little bit happy, a little bit sad
She invented medicinal compound
Tis efficacious in every way.

(Chorus) We'll drink a'Drink a'Drink To Lily the Pink the Pink the Pink The savior of (THE SAVIOR OF!) the human race.
She invented medicinal compound.
Tis efficacious in every way

Now uncle paul, he was terribly small
He was the smallest man around
Then they gave him medicinal compound
Now he's six feet under ground
(Chorus)
Now Charlie hammer had a terrible stammer
He could hardly say a word
Then they gave him medicinal compound
Now he's seen but never heard
(Chorus)
Well Ebenezer, thought he was Julius Caesar
So they put him in a home
There they gave him medicinal compound
Now he's emperor of rome
(Chorus)
Now Freddie Clinger was an opera singer
He broke glasses with his voice 'tis said
But they gave him medicinal compound
Now they break glasses on his head
(Chorus)
A loving couple had a terrible trouble
They just could not procreate
Then they gave them medicinal compound
Instead of one kid they had eight
(Chorus)
(the sound of much wailing) Now here's the sad part... I can hardly bear to sing it...

Lydia died and went up to heaven
All the Church bells the did ring, (ding dong)
But she brought with her medicinal compound
Hark the herald angels sing!!
(Chorus)

8 Johnny Jump Up

Em
I'll tell ye a story that happened to me
D
One day as I went out to Youghal by the Sea
Em                      G                      D
The sun it was bright and the day it was warm
Em                      D                      Em                      D Em
Says I, A quiet pint wouldn't do me no harm
I went to the barman, I says give me a stout Says the barman, I'm sorry all the beer tis sold out
Try whiskey or vodka, ten years in the wood Says I, I'll try cider, I heard it was good

(Chorus) Oh never, oh never, oh never again
If I live to a hundred or a hundred and ten
I fell to the ground and I couldn't get up After drinking a pint of the Johnny Jump Up

After lowering the third I headed strait for the yard
Where I bumped into Brophy the big civic guard
He says come here to me boy don't you know I'm the law
Well I upped with my fist and I shattered his jaw
He fell to the ground with his knees crumpled up
But it T'wasn't I hit him t'was the johnny jump
And the next thing I met down in Youghal by the Sea
Was a cripple on crutches, and says he to me
I'm afraid o' me life I'll be hit by a car
Would you help me across to the Railwayman's Bar
And after three pints of the cider so sweet He threw down his crutches and he danced on his feet
(Chorus)
Now I went up the Lee road a friend to see
They call it the Madhouse in Cork by the Lee
But when I got up there, the truth I do to tell
They had the poor bugger locked up in his cell Says the guard testing him, say these words if you can
'Around the rugged rocks the ragged rascal ran'
Tell them I'm not crazy, tell them I'm not mad T'was only six pints of that cider I had Now a man died in the Union by the name of McNabb
They washed him and laid him outside on a slab
And after the coroner his measurements did take His wife took him home to a bloody fine wake
'Twas about twelve o'clock and the beer it was high
The corpse he sat up and he says with a sigh
I can't get to heaven, they won't let me up Till I bring them a pint of the Johnny Jump Up
(Chorus)

9 Leaving of Liverpool

<sup>C</sup> Fare—well to you, <sup>F</sup> my <sup>C</sup> own true love,
I am going far, far a—way
<sup>C</sup> I am bound for Cali—forni—a, <sup>F</sup> <sup>C</sup>
And I know that I'll return someday <sup>G</sup> <sup>C</sup>

(Chorus) <sup>G</sup> So fare thee well, my <sup>F</sup> own true <sup>C</sup> love,
For when I return, united we will be <sup>G</sup>
But my darling when I <sup>G</sup> think of <sup>C</sup> thee.

I have shipped on a Yankee sailing ship,
Davy Crockett is her name,
And Burgess is the Captain of her,
And they say that she's a floating hell
(Chorus)
Oh the sun is on the harbour, love,
And I wish that I could remain,
For I know that it will be a long, long time,
Before I see you again
(Chorus)

10 A Man's A Man For A' That

Is there for honest poverty
That hings his heed and a' that The coward slave we pass him by We dare be poor for a' that
For a' that and a' that
Our toils obscure and a' that
The rank is but the guinea's stamp
The mands the gowd for a' that

What tho' on hamely fare we dine Wear hoddin-gray and a' that Gie fools their silks and knaves their wine
A mands a man for a' that
For a' that and a' that
Their tinsel show and a' that
The honest man tho' e'er sae poor Is king o' men for a' that

Ye see yon birkie ca'd a lord
Wha struts and stares and a' that Tho' hundreds worship at his word He's but a coof for a' that
For a' that and a' that His riband, star and a' that
The man o' independent mind
He looks and laughs at a' that

A prince can mak a belted knight
A marquis, duke and a' that But an honest mands aboon his might Guid faith he mauna fa' that
For a' that and a' that Their dignities and a' that The pith o' sense and pride o' worth Are higher rank than a' that

Then let us pray that come it may As come it will and a' that
That sense and worth o'er a' the earth Shall bear the gree and a' that
For a' that and a' that
It's coming yet for a' that
That man to man the warld o'er
Shall brothers be for a' that
For a' that and a' that
It's coming yet for a' that
That man to man the warld o'er
Shall brothers be for a' that

11 Gypsy Rover (Whistlin Gypsy)

G C D
The gypsy rover came over the hill
G C D
Down through the valley so sha—dy
G Am D Em
He whistled and he sang till the green woods rang
G Am D G
And he won the heart of a la—dy

G C D
Ah dee do, ah dee do da day
G C D
Ah dee do, ah dee day dee
G Am D Em
He whistled and he sang till the green woods rang
G Am D G
And he won the heart of a la—dy

She left her father's castle gate
She left her own fond lover, left her servants
And estate
To follow the gypsy rover
(Chorus)
Her father saddled his fastest steed
Roamed these valleys all over Sought his daughter at break neck speed
And the whistlin' gypsy rover
(Chorus)
he came at last to a mansion fine
Down by the river Claydee
And there was music and there was wine
For the gypsy and his lady
(Chorus)
"He is no gypsy, my father", she said
But Lord of these lands all over
And I will stay till my dying day
With the whistlin' gypsy rover

12 Wagon Wheel

G D
Heading down south to the land of the pines
Em C
I'm thumbing my way into North Carolina Staring up the road and pray to God I see headlights
I made it down the coast in seventeen hours
Picking me a bouquet of dogwood flowers And I'm a-hopin' for Raleigh, I can see my baby tonight

G D
So rock me mamma like a wagon wheel
Em C
Rock me mamma any way you feel
Hey mamma rock me
Rock me mamma like the wind and the rain
Rock me mamma like a south bound train
Hey mamma rock me

Running from the cold up in New England
I was born to be a fiddler in an old time string band
My baby plays a guitar, I pick a banjo now Oh, north country winters keep a-getting me down
Lost my money playing poker so I had to leave town
But I ain't turning back to living that old life no more
(Chorus)
Walkin' to the south out of Roanoke
I caught a trucker out of Philly had a nice long talk
But he's a-heading west from the Cumberland gap
To Johnson City, Tennessee
I gotta get a move on before the sun
I hear my baby calling my name and I know that she's the only one
And if I die in Raleigh at least I will die free
(Chorus 2x)

13 Molly Malone

G Em
In Dublin's fair city
Am D
Where the girls are so pretty
G Em Am D
I first set my eyes on sweet Molly Ma—lone
G Em
As she wheeled her wheel—barrow
Am D
Through the streets broad and narrow
G Em/C D G
Crying "cockles and mussels, alive, alive, oh"
Alive, alive, oh
Am D
Alive, alive, oh
G Em/C D G
Crying "cockles and mussels, alive, alive, oh"
She was a fishmonger
And sure, t'was no wonder
For so were her mother and father before
And they wheeled their barrow
Through the streets broad and narrow
Crying "cockles and mussels, alive, alive, oh"
(Refrain)
She died of a fever
And sure, so one could save her
And that was the end of sweet Molly Malone
Now her ghost wheels her barrow
Through the streets broad and narrow
Crying "cockles and mussels, alive, alive, oh"
(Refrain 2x)

Em A D
Loch Lomond

'Twas there that we parted
In yon shady glen
On the steep, steep side of Ben Lomond Where in purple hue
The Highland hills we view
And the moon rising out o'er the gloamin
(Refrain)
The wee birdies sing
And the wild flowers spring
And in sunshine the waters are sleeping
But the broken heart it kens
Nae second Spring again
Tho' the waeiful may cease frae their greeting

A band of angels coming after me
Coming for to carry me home

Coming for to carry me home
Tell all my friends I'm coming too
Coming for to carry me home

16 The Wild Rover

<sup>G</sup>I've been a wild rover for many's the year <sup>C</sup> and I've <sup>G</sup>spent all my <sup>D</sup>money on whiskey and beer. <sup>G</sup>
and I <sup>G</sup>never will <sup>D</sup>play the wild rover <sup>G</sup>no more

<sup>C</sup>never, <sup>G</sup>no more
<sup>G</sup>no, <sup>D</sup>never, <sup>G</sup>no more

I went into an ale-house I used to frequent and I told the landlady my money was spent.
I asked her for credit, she answered me nay,
Such a custom like yours I can have any day

| (Chorus)

Then out of me pocket I took sovereigns bright and the landlady's eyes opened wide with delight.
She said I'd have whiskey and wines of the best and the words that she told me were only in jest.

| (Chorus)

I'll go home to my parents, confess what I've done,
and I'll ask them to pardon their prodigal son.
And when they've caressed me as oft' times before then I never will play the wild rover no more

| (Chorus)

17 Charlie on the M.T.A.

Well, let me tell you of the story of a man named Charley on a tragic and fateful day He put ten cents in his pocket, kissed his wife and family, went to ride on the M.T.A.

Well, did he ever return? No, he never returned and his fate is still unknown (What a pity! Poor ole Charlie. Shame and scandal. He may ride forever. Just like Paul Revere)
He may ride forever 'neath the streets of Boston.
He's the man who never returned

Charlie handed in his dime at the Kendall Square Station and he changed for Jamaica Plain When he got there the conductor told him, "One more nickel." Charlie couldn't get off of that train

Well, did he ever return? No, he never returned
and his fate is still unknown
(What a pity! Poor ole Charlie. Shame and scandal. He may ride forever. Just like Paul Revere)
He may ride forever 'neath the streets of Boston.
He's the man who never returned

Now, all night long Charlie rides through the station, crying, "What will become of me?!" How can I afford to see my sister in Chelsea or my cousin in Rocksbury?"

Well, did he ever return? No, he never returned
and his fate is still unknown
(What a pity! Poor ole Charlie. Shame and scandal. He may ride forever. Just like Paul Revere)
He may ride forever 'neath the streets of Boston.
He's the man who never returned

Charlie's wife goes down to the Sculley Square Station every day at quarter past two And through the open window she hands Charlie a sandwich as the train comes rumblin' through

Well, did he ever return? No, he never returned
and his fate is still unknown
(What a pity! Poor ole Charlie. Shame and scandal. He may ride forever. Just like Paul Revere)
He may ride forever 'neath the streets of Boston.
He's the man who never returned

Now, you citizens of Boston, don't you think it's a scandal how the people have to pay and pay?
Fight the fare increase! Vote for George O'Brien!
Get poor Charlie off the M.T.A.

Well, did he ever return? No, he never returned
and his fate is still unknown
(What a pity! Poor ole Charlie. Shame and scandal. He may ride forever. Just like Paul Revere)
He may ride forever 'neath the streets of Boston.
He's the man who never returned

He's the man who never returned. He's the man who never returned
E tu, Charlie?

19 The Battle of New Orleans

In 1814 we took a little trip
Along with Colonel Jackson down the mighty Mississip
<sup>C</sup>
We took a little bacon and we took a little beans
And we caught the bloody British in a town in New Orleans
We fired our guns and the British kep a-comin'
There wasn't nigh as many as there was a while
ago
We fired once more and they begin to runnin'
On down the Mississippi to the <sup>G</sup>Gulf of Mexico

We looked down a river
And we see'd the British come
And there must have been a hundred of'em Beatin' on the drums

They stepped so high
And they made their bugles ring
We stood by our cotton bales
And didn't say a thing

We fired our guns and the British kep a-comin'
There wasn't nigh as many as there was a while
We fired once more and they begin to runnin'
On down the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico
Old Hickory said we could take 'em by surprise
If we didn't fire our muskets
'Till we looked 'em in the eyes

We held our fire
'Till we see'd their faces well Then we opened up our squirrel guns
And really gave 'em – well we

Fired our guns and the British kep a-comin'
We fired once more and they begin to runnin'
On down the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico

Yeah, they ran through the briars
And they ran through the brambles
And they ran through the bushes
Where the rabbit couldn't go
They ran so fast
That the hounds couldn't catch 'em
On down the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico

We fired our cannon 'til the barrel melted down
So we grabbed an alligator and we fought another round
We filled his head with cannon balls, and powdered his behind
And when we touched the powder off the gator lost his mind
We fired our guns and the British kep a-comin'
There wasn't nigh as many as there was a while
We fired once more and they begin to runnin'
On down the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico

Yeah, they ran through the briars
And they ran through the brambles
And they ran through the bushes
Where the rabbit couldn't go
They ran so fast
That the hounds couldn't catch 'em
On down the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico

Hut-two-three-four
Sound off, three-four Hut-two-three-four
Sound off, three-four
Hut-two-three-four

Hut-two-three-four.

20 My Comrade

Fighting bravely in the battle
Gallop on and on,
Riding in the ranks of horsemen
Thou wert my dearest comrade
Thou the one I loved the most, (x2)

An arrogant Cavalier
The strongest of his corps
Lunged at me in thirst of blood
But thy faithful love showed no fear
And thy heart the lance did find (x2)

I've avenged this mortal wound
That thou received in my stead
Deep and deep into the dark of night
I have wept for thee my comrade
Kneeling by thy holy grave, (x2)

In my sadness, how I wander Without meaning I must ride
From this o so deadly ambush
I have lost my dearest comrade
I will never laugh again, (x2)

O prince pray thee, hear my ballade
Listen to my pleading call
I pray God who loves the soldier
To quickly place him, my comrade,
At the right of Christ the Lord, (x2)

23 Kilkelly, Ireland

Em G D
Kilkelly, Ireland, 18 and 60, my dear and loving
Em
son John
Your good friend the schoolmaster G Pat
McNamara's so good
Em
As to write these words down.
G D
Your brothers have all gone to find work in England,
C D B Em
The house is so empty and sad The crop of
G
potatoes is sorely infected,
D Em
A third to a half of them bad.
G D
And your sister Brigid and Patrick O'Donnell
C D
Are going to be married in June.
Em G
Your mother says not to work on the railroad
D Em
And be sure to come on home soon.

son John
Hello to your Mrs and to your 4 children,
May they grow healthy and strong.
Michael has got in a wee bit of trouble,
I suppose that he never will learn.
Because of the dampness there's no turf to speak of
And now we have nothing to burn.
And Brigid is happy, you named a child for her
And now she's got six of her own.
You say you found work, but you don't say What kind or when you will be coming home.

Kilkelly, Ireland, 18 and 80, dear Michael and John, my sons
I'm sorry to give you the very sad news
That your dear old mother has gone.
We buried her down at the church in Kilkelly,
Your brothers and Brigid were there.
You don't have to worry, she died very quickly,
Remember her in your prayers.
And it's so good to hear that Michael's returning,
With money he's sure to buy land
For the crop has been poor and the people Are selling at any price that they can.

son John

I suppose that I must be close on to eighty,
It's thirty years since you're gone.
Because of all of the money you send me,
I'm still living out on my own.
Michael has built himself a fine house
And Brigid's daughters have grown.
Thank you for sending your family picture,
They're lovely young women and men.
You say that you might even come for a visit,
What joy to see you again.

Kilkelly, Ireland, 18 and 92, my dear brother John I'm sorry that I didn't write sooner to tell you that father passed on.
He was living with Brigid, she says he was cheerful
And healthy right down to the end.
Ah, you should have seen him play with The grandchildren of Pat McNamara, your friend.
And we buried him alongside of mother,
Down at the Kilkelly churchyard.
He was a strong and a feisty old man,
Considering his life was so hard.
And it's funny the way he kept talking about you,
He called for you in the end.
Oh, why don't you think about coming to visit,
We'd all love to see you again.

I said she did invite me, but she gave a flat denial For assault, she did indict me and I was sent for trial
She swore I robbed the house in spite of all her screechin'
And I got six months "hard" for my courtin in the kitchen
(Chorus)

25 Isn't It Grand Boys

Look at the coffin, with golden handles
Isn't it grand, boys, to be bloody-well dead?

(Chorus) Let's not have a sniffle, let's have a bloody-good cry
And always remember: The longer you live
The sooner you'll bloody-well die

Look at the flowers, all bloody withered
Isn't it grand, boys, to be bloody-well dead?
(Chorus)
Look at the mourners, bloody-great hypocrites
Isn't it grand, boys, to be bloody-well dead?
(Chorus)
Look at the preacher, a bloody-nice fellow
Isn't it grand, boys, to be bloody-well dead?
(Chorus)

Look at the widow, bloody-great female
Isn't it grand, boys, to be bloody-well dead?
(Chorus)

26 Hesitating Beauty

For your sparkling cocky smile I've walked a million miles
Begging you to come and wed me in the spring
Why do you my dear delay
What makes you laugh and turn away
You're a hesitating beauty, Nora Lee

(Chorus) Well I know that you are itching to get married, Nora Lee And I know how I'm twitching for the same thing, Nora Lee
By the stars and clouds above we could spend our lives in love
You're a hesitating beauty, Nora Lee

We can build a house and home where the flowers come to bloom
Around our yard I'll nail a fence so high That the boys with peeping eyes cannot see that angel face
My hesitating beauty Nora Lee
(Chorus)
We can ramble hand in hand across the grasses of our land
I'll kiss you for each leaf on every tree
We can bring our kids to play where the dry leaves blow today
If you quit your hesitating, Nora Lee
(Chorus)

27 The Devil's Courtship

"I'll buy you a pennyworth o' priens
If that be the way true love begins
If ye'll gang alang wi' me m'dear, if ye'll gang
alang wi' me?"

"Ye can hae your pennyworth of priens
Though that be the way true love begins
For I'll never gang wi' you m'dear, I'll never gang wi' you."

"I'll buy you a braw snuff box
Nine times opened, nine times locked
If ye'll gang alang wi' me m'dear, if ye'll gang
alang wi' me?"

"You can hae your braw snuff box
Nine times opened, nine times locked
For I'll never gang wi' you m'dear, I'll never gang
wi' you."

"I'll buy you a silken goon
Wi' nine stripes up and nine stripes doon
If ye'll gang alang wi' me m'dear, if ye'll gang
alang wi' me?"

"You can hae your silken goon
Wi' nine stripes up and nine stripes doon
For I'll never gang wi' you m'dear, I'll never gang
wi' you."

"I'll buy you a nine stringed bell Tae call yer maid when'er you will
If ye'll gang alang wi' me m'dear, if ye'll gang
alang wi' me?"

"You can keep your nine stringed bell Tae call my maid when'er I will
For I'll never gang wi' you m'dear, I'll never gang
wi' you."

"I'll gie you a kist o' gold
Tae comfort you when you are old
If ye'll gang alang wi' me m'dear, if ye'll gang
alang wi' me?"

"These are fine words you say
So mount up lad you've won the day I'll gang alang wi' you m'dear, I'll gang alang wi'
you."

They'd scarcely gone a mile
Before she spied his cloven heel
"I rue I come wi' you" she says, "I rue I come wi'
you."

"I'll grip ye hard and fast,
Gold won your virgin heart at last
And I'll no part wi' you m'dear, I'll never part wi'
you."

And as they were galloping along
The cold wind carried her mournful song
"I rue I come wi' you" she says, "I rue I come wi'
you."

28 Annabelle

Am F
Lease twenty acres and one Ginny mule
E Am
From the Alabama Trust
Am F
Half of the cotton, third of the corn
Get a handful of dust

F
(Chorus) We cannot have all things to
C
please us
G Am
No matter how we try
Am C
'Til we've all gone to Jesus
G Am
We can only wonder why

I had a daughter called her Annabelle
She's the apple of my eye Tried to give her something like I never had Didn't want to ever hear her cry
(Chorus)
When I'm dead and buried, I'll take a hard life of tears
Everyday I've ever known
Anna's in the churchyard, she's got no life at all She's only got these words on a stone
(Chorus)

29 Carrickfergus

G I wish I was in Carrickfergus
Only for nights in Ballygrand
I would swim over the deepest ocean
Only for nights in Ballygrand
But the sea is wide and I cannot swim over
And neither have I the wings to fly
I wish I had a handsome boatsman
To ferry me over my love and I

My childhood days bring back sad reflections
Of happy times there spent so long ago
My boyhood friends and my own relations
Have all past on now with the melting snow
So I'll spend my days in this endless roving Soft is the grass, my bed is free
Oh to be home now in carrickfergus
On the long rode down to the salty sea

Now in Kilkenny it is reported
On marble stone there as black as ink
With gold and silver I would support her
But I'll sing no more now til I get a drink Cause I'm drunk today and I'm seldom sober
A handsome rover from town to town
Ah but I'm sick now my days are numbered Come all me young lads and lay me down.

30 Hills of Connemara

(Chorus) G Oh gather up your pots and your old tin cans
The mash, and the corn, the barley, and the bran
G Run like the devil from the excise man
Keep the smoke from rising, Barney

Now keep your eyes well peeled today
The excise men they're on their way
Searching for the mountain tay
In the hills of Connemara
(Chorus)
Well the mountain breezes as they blow
Echo down to the hills below
Big tall men are on the go
In the hills of connemara
(Chorus)
Well swing to the left, now swing to the right
The excise man they can dance all night
Drinkin 'up the tay 'til the broad daylight
In the hills of Connemara
(Chorus)
Well a gallon for the butcher and big Mick Klein
A bottle for the poor old Father Stein Keep him off that altar wine
In the hills of Connemara
(Chorus)
Stand your ground, for it's too late
The excise men, they're at the gate
Glory be to paddy, for they're drinking it straight
In the hills of Connemara
(Chorus)

31 Song of the Pelagian Heresy for the Strengthening of Men's Backs and the very Robust Out-thrusting of Doubtful Doctrine and the Uncertain Intellectual

Pelagius lived at Kardanoel
And taught a doctrine there
How, whether you went to heaven or to hell
It was your own affair.
How whether you rose to eternal joy,
Or sank forever to burn,
It had nothing to do with the Church, my boy,
But was your own concern.

No, he didn't believe In Adam and Eve
He put no faith therein!
His doubts began
With the Fall of Man
And he laughed at Original Sin.
With my row-ti-tow
Ti-oodly-ow
He laughed at original sin.

Then came the bishop of old Auxerre Germanus was his name
He tore great handfuls out of his hair
And he called Pelagius shame.
And with his stout Episcopal staff
So thoroughly whacked and banged
The heretics all, both short and tall —
They rather had been hanged.

Oh he whacked them hard, and he whacked them long
Upon each and all occasions
Till they bellowed in chorus, loud and strong
Their orthodox persuasions.
With my row-ti-tow
Ti-oodly-ow
Their orthodox persuasions.

Now the faith is old and the Devil bold Exceedingly bold indeed.
And the masses of doubt that are floating about
Would smother a mortal creed.
But we that sit in a sturdy youth
And still can drink strong ale
Let us put it away to infallible truth
That always shall prevail.

And thank the Lord
For the temporal sword
And howling heretics too.
And all good things
Our Christendom brings
But especially barley brew!
With my row-ti-tow
Ti-oodly-ow
Especially barley brew!

32 The Battle Hymn Of The Republic

Mine eyes have seen the glory
Of the coming of the Lord
He is trampling out the vintage
Where the grapes of wrath are stored
He has loosed the fateful lightening
Of His terrible swift sword
His truth is marching on (Chorus) Glory, glory, hallelujah
Glory, glory, hallelujah
Glory, glory, hallelujah
His truth is marching on

I have seen him in the watch-fires
Of a hundred circling camps
They have builded him an altar
In the evening dews and damps
I have read his righteous sentence
By the dim and flaring lamps
His day is marching on
(Chorus)
I have read a fiery gospel
Writ in burnish'd rows of steel
As ye deal with my contemptors
So with you my grace shall deal
Let the hero, born of woman
Crush the serpent with his heel Since my God is marching on
(Chorus)
He has sounded forth the trumpet
That shall never call retreat
He is sifting out the hearts of men Before His judgment-seat
Oh, be swift, my soul
To answer him be jubilant, my feet
Our God is marching on
(Chorus)

33 The Green Fields Of France

D Bm G A
Oh how do you do, young Willy Mc—Bride
G
Do you mind if I sit here down by your
grave—side
Bm G A
And rest for a while in the warm summer sun
G D
I've been walking all day, and I'm nearly done
Bm G
And I see by your gravestone you were only Em
nine—teen
A G A
When you joined the great fallen in 19—16
D Bm
Well I hope you died quick
G Em
And I hope you died clean
A G D
Or Willy McBride, was is it slow and obscene

(Chorus) A Did they beat the drums slowly
G D
Did they play the fife lowly
Did they sound the death march as they
G A
lowered you down
G D
Did the band play the last post and chorus
Bm G
Did the pipes play the flowers of the
A D
for—est

And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind
In some loyal heart is your memory enshrined
And though you died back in 1916
To that loyal heart you're forever nineteen
Or are you a stranger without even a name Forever enshrined behind some old glass pane
In an old photograph torn, tattered, and stained And faded to yellow in a brown leather frame
(Chorus)
The sun shining down on these green fields of France
The warm wind blows gently and the red poppies dance
The trenches have vanished long under the plow
No gas, no barbed wire, no guns firing now But here in this graveyard that's still no mans land
The countless white crosses in mute witness stand
To man's blind indifference to his fellow man And a whole generation were butchered and damned
(Chorus)
And I can't help but wonder oh Willy McBride
Do all those who lie here know why they died Did you really believe them when they told you the cause
Did you really believe that this war would end wars
Well the suffering, the sorrow, the glory, the shame
The killing and dying it was all done in vain
Oh Willy McBride it all happened again
And again, and again, and again, and again
(Chorus)

34 The Cobbler

Oh, me name is Dick Darby, I'm a cobbler, I spent all me time at old camp Some call me an old agitator, but now I'm resolved to repent

(Chorus)

With me ingtwing of an ingthing of an idoh
With me ingtwing of an ingthing of an iday
With me roobooboo roobooboo randy
And me lap stone keeps fading away

Now, my father was hung for sheep stealing, my mother was burned for a witch My sister's a dandy housekeeper, and I am the son of a "Whoah!"

(Chorus)

Ah, it's forty long years I have travelled, all by the contents of me pack Me hammers, me awls and me pinchers, I carry them all on me back

(Chorus)

Oh, my wife she is humpy, she's lumpy, my wife she's the devil, she's black And no matter what I may do with her, her tongue it goes clickety-clack

(Chorus)

It was early one fine summer's morning, a little before it was day

I dunked her three times in the river, and carelessly bade her "Good day!"

(Chorus)

Johnny I hardly knew ye.

Where are your eyes that were so mild, hurroo,
hurroo

Where are your eyes that were so mild, hurroo,
hurroo

Where are your eyes that were so mild

When my heart you so beguiled

Why did ye run from me and the child

Oh Johnny, I hardly knew ye.

(Chorus)

Where are your legs that used to run, hurroo,
hurroo

Where are your legs that used to run, hurroo,
hurroo

Where are your legs that used to run

When you went for to carry a gun

Indeed your dancing days are done

Oh Johnny, I hardly knew ye.

(Chorus)

Ye haven't an arm, ye haven't a leg, hurroo,
hurroo

Ye haven't an arm, ye haven't a leg, hurroo,
hurroo

Ye haven't an arm, ye haven't a leg

Ye're an armless, boneless, chickenless egg

Ye'll have to put with a bowl out to beg

Oh Johnny I hardly knew ye.

(Chorus)

I'm happy for to see ye home, hurroo, hurroo

I'm happy for to see ye home, hurroo, hurroo

I'm happy for to see ye home

All from the island of Sulloon

So low in flesh, so high in bone

Oh Johnny I hardly knew ye.

(Chorus)

They're rolling out the guns again, hurroo, hurroo

They're rolling out the guns again, hurroo, hurroo

They're rolling out the guns again

But they never will take our sons again

No they never will take our sons again

Johnny I'm swearing to ye.

38 Don't Go For The One

My friend Harvey married Tracey McCall
By Christ she was a scary old doll
A voice out of hell and a temper to boot
Arms like a navvy and a face like dried fruit
I bumped into Harvey back home last year Says I to him, 'Do you wanna go for a beer?'
'No, me sister's French husband is over, ' says he
'I've been sent to get snails to impress him for tea.'

'I was down in the snail shop, she told me to go, '
'I'm a little bit late because business was slow, '
'If I'm not home by six, I'll surely be done, '
'The Mrs will kill me, let's just go for the one.'

(Chorus) The one, the one, don't go for the one
Don't go for the one, for the one, for the one
The one, the one, don't go for the one
Don't go for the one, for the one, for the one

For the one went down fast, the second did too
Three or four followed, twas a fine how-do-you-do

Harvey looked at his watch, shrieked out with fright

It was twenty past ten, we'd been drinking all night

Well cursing my name, he sped 'cross the floor Clutching the snails, he ran out the door
'I'm a dead man, ' he said, 'I'm drunk and I'm late, '

As he tore down the road and up to his gate
(Chorus)

Well he opened the gate and he ran down the path

But he knew he was in for the dragon's wrath
But he tripped and he fell and up in the air
Went the bag with the snails flying everywhere
Hearing the noise she kicked open the door
The snails and Harvey were spread 'cross the floor
'You're three hours late, ' she screamed, loud as she could

'What's your excuse, this had better be good.'

Well he looks down at the snails

And with a confident air

He says, 'five more feet lads, we're nearly there.'

(Chorus 2x)

41 Tell Me Ma

(Chorus) O <sup>G</sup>Tell me ma when I <sup>C</sup>go <sup>G</sup>home
<sup>D</sup>The boys won't leave the <sup>G</sup>girls alone
<sup>G</sup>They pull my hair, they stole my <sup>C</sup>comb <sup>D</sup>But that's all right till I <sup>G</sup>go home <sup>C</sup>She is handsome, she is pretty <sup>G</sup>She is the belle of <sup>D</sup>Belfast city
<sup>G</sup>Pray, would you <sup>D</sup>tell me <sup>G</sup>who is she

Albert Mooney says he loves her
All the boys are fighting for her Knock at the door and they ring that bell
Oh my true love, are you well
Out she comes as white as snow
Rings on her fingers and bells on her toes
Old Jenny Murray says she will die
If she doesn't get the fella with the roving eye
(Refrain)

Let the wind and the rain and the hail blow high
And the snow come toppling from the sky
She's as sweet as apple pie
And she'll get her own lad by and by
When she gets a lad of her own
She won't tell her ma till she comes home Let them all come as they will
For it's Albert Mooney she loves still (Refrain)

42 Charlie Mops

A long time ago, way back in history,
When all they had to drink was nothing but cups of tea,
Along came a mane by the name of Charlie Mopps,
And he invented a wonderful drink and he made it out of hops

(Chorus)
He might have been an Admiral, a Sultan or a King
And to his praises we shall always sing.
Look what he has done for us: he's filled us with cheer.
God bless Charlie Mopps, the man who invented beer beer beer tiddily beer beer beer

A barrel of malt a bucket of hops and add some yeast put it all together and let it ferment and swell When it's brewed and ready at 11 o'clock we'll stop for 5 short seconds we'll remember Charlie Mopps
(Chorus)

(Put your local pubs here)
At Carnsies and the Flat Iron and Pickle Bill's as well
One thing I can be sure of It's Charlie's beer they sell Some come along you lucky lads at 11 o'clock we'll stop for 5 short seconds we'll remember Charlie Mopps (1..2..3..4..5)
(Chorus)

43 I'll Fly Away

G
Some bright morning when this life is over
C
I'll fly away
G
To that home on God's celestial shore
D G
I'll fly away

(Chorus) I'll fly away, oh glory
I'll fly away in the morning
When I die, Hallelujah by and by I'll fly away

When the shadows of this life have gone
Like a bird from these prison walls I'll fly
(Chorus)
Oh, how glad and happy when we meet
No more cold iron shackles on my feet
(Chorus)
Just a few more weary days and then
To a land where joys will never end

44 Haul Away Joe

O when I was a little lad
Or so my mother told me,
Way, haul away, we'll haul away, Joe!
That if I did not kiss the gals
Me lips would all grow moldy.
Way, haul away, we'll haul away, Joe!

(Chorus) Sing it!
Way, haul away, we'll haul for better weather,
Way, haul away, we'll haul away, Joe!

King Louis was the king of France
Before the revolut-i-on
Way, haul away, we'll haul away, Joe!
But then he got his head cut off
Which spoiled his constitut-i-on Way, haul away, we'll haul away, Joe!
(Chorus)
First I met a yankee girl,
But she was fat and lazy
Way, haul away, we'll haul away, Joe!
Then I met an Irish girl
She darn near drives me crazy!
Way, haul away, we'll haul away, Joe!
(Chorus)
Saint Patrick was a gentleman
He came from decent people,
Way, haul away, we'll haul away, Joe!
He built a church in Dublin Town
And on it put a steeple,
Way, haul away, we'll haul away, Joe!
(Chorus)

45 Farewell to Nova Scotia

(Chorus) <sup>G</sup> Farewell to Nova Scotia, your sea-bound coast,
<sup>Em</sup> Let your mountains dark and dreary be <sup>G</sup> When I'm far away, on the <sup>D</sup> briny ocean tossed,
<sup>Em</sup> Will you ever heave a <sup>C</sup> sigh or a <sup>Em</sup> wish for me?

<sup>Em</sup> The birds were singing on every tree <sup>G</sup> All of nature seemed inclined to rest <sup>Em</sup> But, still, there was no rest for me. <sup>C</sup> <sup>Em</sup>
(Chorus)
I grieve to leave my native land
I grieve to leave my comrades all
And my poor old aged parents whom I love so dear
And the bonny, bonny lass that I do adore.
(Chorus)
The drums do beat and the wars they alarm
Our captain calls; we must obey
Farewell, farewell, to Nova Scotia's charm
For it's early in the morning I am bound far away
(Chorus)
I have two brothers and they are at rest.
Their hands are folded on their chest.
But a poor, simple sailor just like me
Must be tossed and turned on the deep, blue sea.
(Chorus)

46 Dublin Blues

<sup>D</sup> Well, I wished I was in <sup>G</sup> Austin, mmm <sup>D</sup> In the Chili <sup>A</sup> Parlor Bar
<sup>D</sup> Drinkin' Mad Dog Margaritas <sup>G</sup> And not carin' where you are <sup>D</sup>
But here I sit in Dublin, mmm
Just rollin' cigarettes
Holdin' back and chokin' back
The shakes with every breath

(Chorus) <sup>A</sup> So forgive me all my anger <sup>D</sup> Forgive me all my faults
There's no need to forgive me
<sup>D</sup> For thinkin' what I thought I loved you from the get go <sup>D</sup> And I'll love you till I die <sup>A</sup> I loved you on the Spanish Steps <sup>G</sup> The day you said goodbye

I am just a poor boy, mmm
Work's my middle name
If money was a reason
Well, I would not be the same
I'll stand up and be counted, mmm
I'll face up to the truth
I'll walk away from trouble
But I can't walk away from you
(Chorus)
I have been to Fort Worth, mmm
And I have been to Spain
And I have been too proud
To come in out of the rain
And I have seen the David, mmm
I've seen the Mona Lisa too
And I have heard Doc Watson Play Columbus Stockade Blues
(Chorus)
Well, I wished I was in Austin, mmm
In the Chili Parlor Bar
Drinkin' Mad Dog Margaritas
And not carin' where you are

47 El Paso

D Out in the West Texas town of El Paso Em
A7 I fell in love with a Mexican girl D
D Nighttime would find me in Rosa's cantina Em
A7 Music would play and Felina would whirl D

Blacker than night were the eyes of Felina Wicked and evil while casting a spell
My love was deep for this Mexican maiden
I was in love but in vain, I could tell

G One night a wild young cowboy came in C G
Wild as the West Texas wind D
D7 Dashing and daring, a drink he was sharing With wicked Felina, the girl that I loved G
So in anger A

I challenged his right for the love of this maiden Down went his hand for the gun that he wore My challenge was answered in less than a heartbeat
The handsome young stranger lay dead on the floor

Just for a moment I stood there in silence
Shocked by the foul evil deed I had done Many thoughts raced through my mind as I stood there
I had but one chance and that was to run

Out through the back door of Rosa's I ran Out where the horses were tied
I caught a good one, it looked like it could run
Up on its back and away I did ride
Just as fast as I Could from the West Texas town of El Paso
Out to the badlands of New Mexico

Back in El Paso my life would be worthless Everything's gone in life; nothing is left It's been so long since I've seen the young maiden
My love is stronger than my fear of death

I saddled up and away I did go Riding alone in the dark
Maybe tomorrow, a bullet may find me Tonight nothing's worse than this pain in my heart
And at last here I Am on the hill overlooking El Paso
I can see Rosa's cantina below
My love is strong and it pushes me onward
Down off the hill to Felina I go

Off to my right I see five mounted cowboys Off to my left ride a dozen or more Shouting and shooting, I can't let them catch me
I have to make it to Rosa's back door

Something is dreadfully wrong for I feel A deep burning pain in my side
Though I am trying to stay in the saddle
I'm getting weary, unable to ride

But my love for Felina is strong and I rise where I've fallen Though I am weary I can't stop to rest
I see the white puff of smoke from the rifle
I feel the bullet go deep in my chest

From out of nowhere Felina has found me Kissing my cheek as she kneels by my side Cradled by two loving arms that I'll die for One little kiss and Felina, goodbye

48 My son John (Cannonball)

Em                      G            D
My son John was tall and slim
Em                      G            D
And he had a leg for every limb
Em                      D
Now he's got no legs at all
Em                                      G            D
They're both shot away by a cannon ball

(Chorus) Em                      G/D
Hoo-rum rye, fadda riddle dye
G                                      G    D    Em
Whack fo' the diddle To me hoo rum rye

Well were ya drunk or were ya blind
To leave your two fine legs behind
Or was it from walkin upon the sea
That took your legs from the ground to the knee
(Chorus)
Well I wasn't drunk and I wasn't blind
To leave my two fine legs behind T'was a cannonball on the fifth o' May That took my legs from the ground to the knee
(Chorus)
Each foreign war I'll now denounce
'tween this King of England and that King of France
I'd rather my legs as they used to be
Than the king of Spain and his whole navy
(Chorus)
I was tall and I was slim
And I had a leg for every limb
But now I've got no legs at all
You can't win a race with a cannon ball

49 By The Mark

When I cross over
I will shout and sing
I will know my Savior
By the mark where the nails have been

(Chorus) By the mark where the nails have been
By the sign upon His precious skin
I will know my Savior when I come to Him
By the mark where the nails have been

A man of riches
May claim a crown of jewels
But the King of Heaven
Can be told from the prince of fools
(Chorus)
On Calvary's Mountain
Where they made Him suffer so
All my sin was paid for A long, long time ago
(Chorus)
I will know my Savior when I come to Him
By the mark where the nails have been

50 Foxfire

When I was young and free and not so very brave my friends and I had a place that we called "Devils cave"

We'd meet out there after dark tell tales by candle light and event that marked all of our lives happened there one night

The evening it was bitter cold and the stars were shining hard the wind cut through the leafless trees as a razor through a cord

The feeble glow from the candle flame Brought us no warmth at all soon a fire was raging in its place shadows on the cavern wall

That night the legend offered was a hard one to believe but with a chilling wind and warming glow a spell began to weave

A tale of a native nation and a culture that's long past and a people caught up in a flux in a land that was so vast

A dream about dark rumors over murder that was done against the whites off to the east at the setting of the sun

A dream of a council that was called and punishment proclaimed
'twas banishment for the one accused to sooth all those inflamed

Now it was later in that year in the season of the change when the rut of stag and the russet tones spread throughout the range

A ghostly figure hovered in the valley growing bright
'tis the evil the shaman said who haunts us here at night

So a council was convened and a party then dispatched they were to find the ghostly fiend its path they were to match

It lead unto a barren cave where the river ran so wide the pursuers built a fire so high the smoke was drawn inside

Not long after flames were licking at the cavern floor then the evil one now all ablaze came screaming through the door

Out to the river's edge where the river ran so cold it plunged into the blackened waves its soul they did enfold

It was found the banished one had played the ghostly fiend it was the foxfire made him glow even as the river gleamed

So it was called the "Devils Cave" that he ran from the night and it was called the "Devils Cave" where we held our vigil rite

Now as the evil one came screaming through the cavern door
I awoke and found my friends asleep a-lyin' on the floor

The fire, it had spent itself smoke filled the dark and damp the cavern closed in all around our breath caught in a clamp

And as the moment for our deaths upon us did appear a flaming figure split the dark the "evil one" drew near"

But we all followed close behind that specter through the door and out into the evening chill to breath the air once more

I am told the story's true there lived an Indian who rubbed the foxfire on himself and met a burning end

Perhaps it was his spirit that appeared to us the night perhaps to set the record straight he used the foxfire light

51 Ha'nacker Mill

Hillaire Belloc

Sally is gone that was so kindly,
Sally is gone from Ha'nacker Hill
And the Briar grows ever since then so blindly;
And ever since then the clapper is still...
And the sweeps have fallen from Ha'nacker Mill.

Ha'nacker Hill is in Desolation:
Ruin a-top and a field unploughed.
And Spirits that call on a fallen nation,
Spirits that loved her calling aloud,
Spirits abroad in a windy cloud.

Spirits that call and no one answers —
Ha'nacker's down and England's done.
Wind and Thistle for pipe and dancers,
And never a ploughman under the Sun:
Never a ploughman. Never a one.

52 The Irish Rover

In the <sup>G</sup>year of our Lord, eighteen <sup>C</sup>hundred and six,
We set sail from the Coal Quay of <sup>D</sup>Cork
We were sailing away with a cargo of bricks
For the <sup>G</sup>grand City <sup>D</sup>Hall in New <sup>G</sup>York
We'd an elegant craft, it was rigged 'fore and aft
And how <sup>G</sup>the trade winds <sup>D</sup>drove her
She had twenty-three masts and she stood several <sup>C</sup>blasts
And they <sup>G</sup>called her the Irish — <sup>D</sup> — <sup>G</sup>Rover

There was Barney Magee from the banks of the Lee
There was Hogan from County Tyrone
There was Johnny McGurk who was scared stiff of work
And a chap from Westmeath named Malone
There was Slugger O'Toole who was drunk as a rule
And fighting Bill Tracy from Dover And your man Mick McCann, from the banks of the Bann
Was the skipper on the Irish Rover

We had one million bags of the best Sligo rags
We had two million barrells of bone
We had three million bales of old nanny goats' tails
We had four million barrells of stone
We had five million hogs and six million dogs
And seven million barrells of porter
We had eight million sides of old blind horses' hides
In the hold of the Irish Rover

We had sailed seven years when the measles broke out
And our ship lost her way in a fog
And the whole of the crew was reduced down to two
'Twas myself and the captain's old dog
Then the ship struck a rock, oh, Lord what a shock
And nearly tumbled over Turned nine times around then the poor old dog was drowned
I'm the last of the Irish Rover

53 And the Band Played Waltzing Matilda

When I <sup>G</sup> was a young man I <sup>C</sup> carried my <sup>G</sup> pack <sup>Em</sup>
 And I lived the free life of a rover
 From the Murrays green basin to the dusty outback
 I waltzed my Matilda all over
 Then in <sup>D</sup> nineteen fifteen my <sup>C</sup> country said <sup>G</sup> Son <sup>D</sup> It's time to stop rambling 'cause there's <sup>C</sup> work to be done
 So they gave me a tin hat and they gave me a <sup>Em</sup> gun
 And they sent me away to the war
 And the band played <sup>C</sup> Waltzing <sup>G</sup> Matilda
 As we sailed away from the quay
 And amidst all the tears and the shouts and the <sup>Em</sup> cheers
<sup>G</sup> We sailed off to <sup>D</sup> Gallipoli <sup>G</sup>

How well I remember that terrible day
 How the blood stained the sand and the water
 And how in that hell that they called Suvla Bay
 We were butchered like lambs at the slaughter
 Johnny Turk he was ready, he primed himself well
 He chased us with bullets, he rained us with shells
 And in five minutes flat he'd blown us all to hell
 Nearly blew us right back to Australia
 But the band played Waltzing Matilda
 As we stopped to bury our slain
 We buried ours and the Turks buried theirs
 Then we started all over again

Now those that were left, well we tried to survive
 In a mad world of blood, death and fire
 And for ten weary weeks I kept myself alive
 But around me the corpses piled higher Then a big Turkish shell knocked me arse over head
 And when I woke up in my hospital bed
 And saw what it had done, I wished I was dead
 Never knew there were worse things than dying
 For no more I'll go waltzing Matilda
 All around the green bush far and near
 For to hump tent and pegs, a man needs two legs
 No more waltzing Matilda for me

So they collected the cripples, the wounded, the maimed
 And they shipped us back home to Australia
 The armless, the legless, the blind, the insane
 Those proud wounded heroes of Suvla
 And as our ship pulled into Circular Quay
 I looked at the place where my legs used to be And thank Christ there was nobody waiting for me
 To grieve and to mourn and to pity
 And the band played Waltzing Matilda
 As they carried us down the gangway
 But nobody cheered, they just stood and stared Then turned all their faces away

And now every April I sit on my porch
 And I watch the parade pass before me And I watch my old comrades, how proudly they march
 Reliving old dreams of past glory
 And the old men march slowly, all bent, stiff and sore
 The forgotten heroes from a forgotten war And the young people ask, "What are they marching for?"
 And I ask myself the same question
 And the band plays Waltzing Matilda
 And the old men answer to the call
 But year after year their numbers get fewer Some day no one will march there at all

Waltzing Matilda, Waltzing Matilda
 Who'll go a waltzing Matilda with me
 And their ghosts may be heard as you pass the Billabong
 Who'll go a waltzing Matilda with me?

54 Folsom Prison Blues

<sup>G</sup>
I hear the train a comin'
It's rollin' 'round the bend
And I ain't seen the sunshine Since, I don't know when I'm stuck in Folsom <sup>G7 C</sup> Prison
And time keeps draggin' on <sup>G</sup>
But that train keeps a-rollin' <sup>D7</sup>
On down to San Antone <sup>G</sup>

When I was just a baby
My Mama told me, "son
Always be a good boy
Don't ever play with guns"
But I shot a man in Reno
Just to watch him die
When I hear that whistle blowin'
I hang my head and cry

I bet there's rich folks eatin'
In a fancy dinin' car
They're probably drinkin' coffee
And smokin' big cigars
Well, I know I had it comin'
I know I can't be free
But those people keep a-movin'
And that's what tortures me

Well, if they freed me from this prison
If that railroad train was mine
I bet I'd move it on a little Farther down the line Far from Folsom Prison
That's where I want to stay
And I'd let that lonesome whistle Blow my blues away

55 Brennan on the Moor

Tis of a brave young highwayman this story I will tell His name was Willie Brennan and in Ireland he did dwell
It was on the Kilwood Mountain he commenced his wild career
And many a wealthy nobleman before him shook with fear

(Chorus) It was Brennan on the moor,
Brennan on the moor
Bold, brave and undaunted was young
Brennan on the moor

One day upon the highway as young Willie he went down
He met the mayor of Cashiell a mile outside of town
The mayor he knew his features and he said, Young man, said he
Your name is Willie Brennan, you must come along with me

Now Brennan's wife had gone to town provisions for to buy
And when she saw her Willie she commenced to weep and cry
Said, Hand to me that tenpenny, as soon as Willie spoke She handed him a blunderbuss from underneath her cloak

Now with this loaded blunderbuss – the truth I will unfold –
He made the mayor to tremble and he robbed him of his gold
One hundred pounds was offered for his apprehension there
So he, with horse and saddle to the mountains did repair

Now Brennan being an outlaw upon the mountains high With cavalry and infantry to take him they did try
He laughed at them with scorn until at last 'twas said
By a false-hearted woman he was cruelly betrayed

They hanged Brennan at the crossroads, in chains he hung and dried
But still they say that, in the night, some do see him ride
They see him with his blunderbuss, all in the midnight chill Along, along the King's highway rides Willie Brennan still!

56 Fiddler's Green

D G D Bm
As I roved by the dockside one evening so fair
D G D A
To view the salt waters and take in the salt air
G D
I heard/spied an old fisherman singing a song
Em D A
Won't you take me away boys me time is not long

D A
(Chorus) Wrap me up in me oilskin and
D
Jumper
G D A
No more on the docks I'll be seen
G D
Just tell me old shipmates, I'm taking a trip mates
A A7 D
And I'll see you someday on Fiddlers Green

Now Fiddler's Green is a place I've heard tell Where the fishermen go if they don't go to hell
Where the weather is fair and the dolphins do play
And the cold coast of Greenland is far, far away
(Chorus)
Yes the weather is fair and there's never a gail
And the fish jump on board with one swish on their tail
You can lie at your leisure, there's no work to do
And the skipper's below making tea for the crew
(Chorus)
When pull into port and the long trip is through There's pubs and there's clubs and there's lassies there too
And the girls are all pretty and the beer is all free
And there's bottles of rum growing on every tree.
(Chorus)
Now I don't need a harp nor a halo, not me
Just give me a breeze and a good rolling sea
I'll play me old squeeze-box as we sail along With the wind in the riggin to sing me a song
(Chorus)

57 HEALTH TO THE COMPANY

Kind friends and companions, come join me in rhyme
Come lift up your voices in chorus with mine
Come lift up your voices, all grief to refrain
For we may or might never all meet here again

(Chorus) So here's a health to the company and one to my lass
Let's drink and be merry all out of one glass
Let's drink and be merry, all grief to refrain For we may or might never all meet here again

Here's a health to the wee lass that I love so well
For style and for beauty there's none can excel There's a smile on her countenance as she sits upon my knee
There is no man in this wide world as happy as me
(Chorus)
Our ship lies at anchor, she is ready to dock
I wish her safe landing without any shock
And if ever I should meet you by land or by sea
I will always remember your kindness to me
(Chorus)

58 Star of the County Down

Em In Banbridge Town in the G County D Down Em One morning last July, C D
Em From a breen green came a sweet colleen G D
And she smiled as she passed me by. Em D Em
G She looked so sweet from her D two bare feet
Em To the sheen of her nut brown hair. C D
Em Such a coaxing elf, sure I shook myself G D
Em For to see I was really there. D Em

G [Chorus] From Bantry Bay up to Derry
Quay and
Em C D
From Galway to Dublin Town,
Em G D
No maid I've seen like the brown colleen
Em D Em
That I met in the County Down.

As she onward sped, sure I scratched my head,
And I looked with a feelin' rare,
And I say's, say's I, to a passer-by,
"Whose the maid with the nut brown hair"?
He smiled at me and he says, say's he,
"That's the gem of Ireland's crown.
It's Rosie McCann from the banks of the Bann, She's the star of the County Down".
[Chorus]
At the Harvest Fair she'll be surely there
And I'll dress in my Sunday clothes,
With my shoes shone bright and my hat cocked Right for a smile from my nut brown rose.
No pipe I'll smoke, no horse I'll yoke
Till my plough turns rust colored brown.
Till a smiling bride, by my own fireside
Sits the star of the County Down.
[Chorus]

60 The Ridde Song

I (C)gave my love a (F)cherry that had no (C)stone

G C G
Gave my love a chicken that had no bone
G C G
I gave my love a baby with no crying
Am F C
And told my love a story that had no end

How can there be a cherry that has no stone?
How can there be a chicken that has no bone?
How can there be a baby with no crying?
How can you tell a story that has no end?

A cherry when it's blooming, it has no stone
And a chicken when it's pipping, there is no bone
A baby when it's sleeping, there's no crying
And when I say "I love you", it has no end

I gave my love a cherry that had no stone
I gave my love a chicken that had no bone
I gave my love a baby with no crying
And told my love a story that had no end

61 Red is the rose

D Bm Em G A
Come over the hills, my bonnie Irish lass
D Bm G A G
Come over the hills to your darling You choose
Fm G Bm A
the rose, love, and I'll make the vow -
D Bm Em A D
And I'll be your true love for - ever.

(Chorus) D Bm Em
Red is the rose that in yonder garden
G A D Bm G A G grows Fair is the lily of the valley Clear is Fm G Bm A D
the water that flows from the Boyne But my Bm Em A D
love is fairer than any.-

'Twas down by Killarney's green woods that we strayed
When the moon and the stars they were shining
The moon shone its rays on her locks of golden hair
And she swore she'd be my love forever.

| (Chorus)

It's not for the parting that my sister pains
It's not for the grief of my mother
'Tis all for the loss of my bonny Irish lass
That my heart is breaking forever.

62 Finnegan's Wake

Tim Finnegan lived in Bm Wattling Street
G A
A gentle Irishman mighty odd
D Bm
He'd a beautiful brogue so rich and sweet
G A D
To rise in the world he carried a hod
D Bm
See he'd sort of a tripling way
D Bm
With love for a liquor poor Tim was born
D Bm
To help him on with his work each day
G A D
He'd a drop of the Craythor every morn'

[Chorus] D Bm
And whack Fol-De-Dah now dance to your partner
G A
Round the floor, your trotters shake
D Bm
Wasn't it the truth I told you
G A D
Lots of fun at Finnegan's wake

One morning Tim was rather full
His head felt heavy, which made him shake Fell from the ladder and broke his skull
So they carried him home, his corpse to wake Rolled him up in a nice clean sheet
And laided him upon the bed
A bottle of whiskey at his feet
And a gallon of porter at his head
[Chorus]
His friends assembled at his wake
And Missus Finnegan called for lunch
First they brought in tay and cake
Then pipes, tobacco and whiskey punch
Biddy O'Brien begged to cry
Such a nice clean corpse did you see Aye, Tim me boy, oh why did you die?
Arrah shut your gob said Paddy McGee
[Chorus]
Then Peggy O'Connor took up the job
Biddy says she you're wrong I'm sure Biddy then gave her a belt on the gob
And left her sprawling on the floor
There the war did soon engage Woman to woman and man to man
Shillelah-law was all the rage
An a row and a ruction soon began
[Chorus]
Mickey Maloney raised his head
When a bottle Of whiskey flew at him
It missed him falling on the bed
The liquor scattered over Tim Tim revives, see how he rises
Timothy rising from the bed
"Whirl your whiskey around like blazes?
Tonamondeal, do you think I'm dead!?"
[Chorus 2x]

63 Jock Stewart

C                      G
Now, my name is Jock Stewart
Am                  F
I'm a canny gaun man,
C                      G                  C
And a roving young fellow, I've been.

(Chorus) So be easy and free
When you're drinkin wi' me.
I'm a man you don't meet every day.

I have acres of land;
I have men at command;
I have always a shilling to spare.
(Chorus)
Now, I took out my gun,
With my dog I did shoot,
All down by the River Kildare
(Chorus)
I'm a piper by trade
And a roving young blade
And many a tune I do play
(Chorus)
Let us catch well the hours
And the minutes that fly
And we'll share them together this day
(Chorus)
So, come fill up your glasses
Of brandy and wine,
And whatever the cost, I will pay.

64 The little beggarmen

I am a little beggarman, a-begging I have been For three score or more in this little isle of green
I'm known from the Liffey down to Segue
And I'm known by the name of old Johnny Dhu

Of all the trades that's going, I'm sure begging is the best
For when a man is tired, he can sit down and rest
He can beg for his dinner, he has nothing else to do
Only cut around the corner with his old rig-a-doo

I slept in the barn right down at Caurabawn
A wet night came on and I slept until the dawn With holes in the roof and the rain coming through
And the rats and the cats, they were playing peek-a-boo

When who did I waken but the woman of the house
With her white spotty apron and her calico blouse
She began to frighten, I said, "Boo Ara, don't be afraid, ma'am, it's only Johnny Dhu"

I met a little flaxy-haired girl one day
"Good morning, little flaxy-haired girl," I did say "Good morning, little beggarman, and how do you do
With your rags and your tags and your old rig-a-doo?"

I'll buy a pair of leggings and a collar and a tie
And a nice young lady I'll fetch by and by I'll buy a pair of goggles, I'll color them blue
And an old-fashioned lady I will make her, too

Over the road with me pack on me back Over the fields with me great, heavy sack
With holes in me shoes and me toes peeping through Singing, "Skinny-me-rink-a-doodle-o and old Johnny Dhu"

I must be going to bed for it's getting late at night
The fire's all raked and out goes the light
So now you've heard the story of me old rig-a-doo
"It's good-bye and God be with you," says old
Johnny Dhu

65 A Little Bit More

<sup>G</sup> When I was young me <sup>C</sup> father said, <sup>G</sup> It's time the children <sup>C</sup> went to <sup>D</sup> bed,

And when the morning came around,
You could hear that same auld sound
When they came rapping on the door
I want to lay on a little bit more.

(Chorus)
The barman says theres no more beer,
Drink up your drink and get out of here,
Still you see them hanging 'round the door,
Hopeing to get in for a little bit more.

(Chorus)
I met a girl called Mary Rose
I said young girl can I kiss your nose,
She said I met your likes before
All you want is a little bit more.

(Chorus)
And when your days are nearly done
Before you cross that rubicon
The doctor says your time is done,
And you pray to the Lord for a little bit more.
(Chorus)

66 The Devil Down Below

I used to be a fisherman, on the icy crests we'd ride
Like a banshee on the wind, we'd sail the ocean wide.
From the shoals of Yarmouth Bay to Newfoundland we'd go...

And we'd shout! Shout! Shout! Shout at the Devil down below

Out to the snows of Greenland, into the screaming gale
Out into the storm, chasing down the whale
When the harpoon struck, the mighty fish would blow...

And we'd shout! Shout! Shout! Shout at the Devil down below

In our bunks we'd find no solace, no comfort just remorse
We'd curse at the bad fortune that had set us on this course Gathered 'round the lamplight we'd sing both high and low...

And we'd shout! Shout! Shout! Shout at the Devil down below

From the rocks of Lizard Reef to Plymouth we are bound
The skipper's yelling blood as the jagged cliffs we round
Jack Duggan in the foresail, Billy Reilly in the crow...

And we'd shout! Shout! Shout! Shout at the Devil down below

Only when we'd quenched this mighty vessel's appetite
Would the captain tell us "Lads, we'll be going home tonight!"
We'd turn to the raging sea and we'd raise our fists and yell,
"You won't be seeing us today, you won't be seeing us in Hell!"

Once ashore we'd head into the pub for a tankard full of ale
One day would turn into a week and the time would come to sail
We'd say goodbye to the girls we love, then off from the shore we'd row...

And we'd shout! Shout! Shout! Shout at the Devil down below
And we'd shout! Shout! Shout! Shout! Shout at the Devil down below

Em Bm
The enemy nearly slew ye
G D Em Bm
Oh my darling dear, Ye look so queer
Em
Johnny I hardly knew ye.

Where are your eyes that were so mild, hurroo,
hurroo
Where are your eyes that were so mild, hurroo,
hurroo
Where are your eyes that were so mild
When my heart you so beguiled
Why did ye run from me and the child
Oh Johnny, I hardly knew ye.
(Chorus)
Where are your legs that used to run, hurroo,
hurroo
Where are your legs that used to run, hurroo,
hurroo
Where are your legs that used to run
When you went for to carry a gun
Indeed your dancing days are done
Oh Johnny, I hardly knew ye.
(Chorus)
I'm happy for to see ye home, hurroo, hurroo
I'm happy for to see ye home, hurroo, hurroo
I'm happy for to see ye home
All from the island of Sulloon
So low in flesh, so high in bone
Oh Johnny I hardly knew ye.
(Chorus)
Ye haven't an arm, ye haven't a leg, hurroo,
hurroo
Ye haven't an arm, ye haven't a leg, hurroo,
hurroo
Ye haven't an arm, ye haven't a leg
Ye're an armless, boneless, chickenless egg
Ye'll have to put with a bowl out to beg
Oh Johnny I hardly knew ye.
(Chorus)

They're rolling out the guns again, hurroo, hurroo
They're rolling out the guns again, hurroo, hurroo
They're rolling out the guns again
But they never will take our sons again
No they never will take our sons again
Johnny I'm swearing to ye.

69 One More Dollar

You will find me drinking rum,
Like a sailor in a slum,
You will find me drinking beer like a Bavarian
You will find me drinking gin
In the lowest kind of inn
Because I am a rigid Vegetarian.

So I cleared the inn of wine
And I tried to climb the sign,
And I tried to hail the constable as "Marion."
But he said I couldn't speak,
And he bowled me to the Beak
Because I was a Happy Vegetarian.
Oh, I know a Doctor Gluck,
And his nose it had a hook,

And his attitudes were anything but Aryan;
So I gave him all the pork
That I had, upon a fork
Because I am myself a Vegetarian.

I am silent in the Club,
I am silent in the pub.,
I am silent on a bally peak in Darien;
For I stuff away for life
Shoving peas in with a knife,
Because I am a rigid Vegetarian.

No more the milk of cows
Shall pollute my private house
Than the milk of the wild mares of the Barbarian
I will stick to port and sherry,
For they are so very, very,
So very, very, very, Vegetarian

(Chorus) And it's <sup>G</sup>all for me grog, me <sup>C</sup>jolly <sup>G</sup>jolly grog

<sup>D7</sup>All for me beer and tobacco

<sup>G</sup>Well I've spent all me tin with the <sup>C</sup>lassies drinking

<sup>D</sup>Far across the western ocean I must (D7-G) wander

I'm sick in the head and I haven't been to bed
Since first I came ashore with me plunder
I've seen centipedes and snakes
And my head is full off aches
And I'll have to make a path for way out yonder
(Chorus)

Where are me boots, me noggin' noggin' boots
They're all sold for beer and tobacco
You see the sole's were gettin' thin
And the uppers were letting in
And the heels are looking out for better weather
(Chorus)

Where is me shirt me noggin' noggin' shirt
It's all gone for beer and tobacco
You see the sleeves they got worn out
And the collar was turned about
And the tail is looking out for better weather
(Chorus)

Where is me wife me noggin' noggin' wife
She's all sold for beer and tobacco
You see her front it got worn out
And her tail been kicked about
And I'm sure she's looking out for better weather
(Chorus)

Oh, where is me bed me noggin' noggin' bed
It's all sold for beer and tobacco
You see I sold it to the girls
And the springs they got all twirls
And the sheets they're looking out for better weather

(Chorus)

72    The Rocky Road to Dublin

Bm
While in the merry month of June from me home I started,
Left the girls of Tuam Nearly broken hearted,
Bm
Saluted father dear, kissed me darling mother,
Drank a pint of beer, me grief and tears to smother,
Bm A Bm
Then off to reap the corn, leave where I was born,
Bm A
Cut a stout black thorn to banish ghosts and goblins;
Bm A Bm A
Bought a pair of brogues rattling o'er the bogs
Bm A
And fright'ning all the dogs on the rocky road to Dublin.

Bm A Bm
[Chorus] One, two, three four, five, Hunt the Hare and turn her down the rocky road
A Bm A Bm
all the way to Dublin, Whack fol la de rah

In Mullingar that night I rested limbs so weary, Started by daylight next morning blithe and early, Took a drop of pure to keep me heart from sinking;
Thats a Paddy's cure whenever he's on drinking.
See the lassies smile, laughing all the while At me curious style, 'twould set your heart a bubblin'
Asked me was I hired, wages I required,
I was almost tired of the rocky road to Dublin.
[Chorus]
In Dublin next arrived, I thought it such a pity
To be soon deprived a view of that fine city.
So then I took a stroll, all among the quality;
Me bundle it was stole, all in a neat locality.
Something crossed me mind, when I looked behind,
No bundle could I find upon me stick a wobblin' Enquiring for the rogue, they said me Connaught brogue
Wasn't much in vogue on the rocky road to Dublin.
[Chorus]
From there I got away, me spirits never falling, Landed on the quay, just as the ship was sailing.
The Captain at me roared, said that no room had he;
When I jumped aboard, a cabin found for Paddy.
Down among the pigs, played some hearty rigs, Danced some hearty jigs, the water round me bubbling;
When off Holyhead I wished meself was dead,
Or better for instead on the rocky road to Dublin.
[Chorus]
Well the boys of Liverpool, when we safely landed,
Called meself a fool, I could no longer stand it.
Blood began to boil, temper I was losing;
Poor old Erin's Isle they began abusing.
"Hurrah me soul" says I, me Shillelagh I let fly.
Some Galway boys were nigh and saw I was a hobble in,
With a load "hurray !" joined in the affray.
We quietly cleared the way for the rocky road to Dublin.
[Chorus]

73    Four Green Fields

G    D    G
What did I have',
          C        D
Said the fine old woman.
G    D    G
What did I have',
          C                    D
This proud old woman did say.
'I had four green fields,
Each one was a jewel.
But strangers came
And tried to take them from me.
But my fine strong sons
They fought to save my jewels.
          C                    D
They fought and they died
          G                D        G
And that was my grief', said she.

'Long time ago',
Said the fine old woman,
'Long time ago',
This proud old woman did say.
'There was war and death,
Plundering and pillage.
My children starved
By mountain, valley and stream.
And their wailing cries
They reached the very heavens.
And my four green fields
Ran red with their blood', said she.

'What have I now',
Said the fine old woman.
'What have I now',
This proud old woman did say.
'I have four green fields,
One of them's in bondage.
In strangers' hands,
That try to take it from me.
But my sons have sons
As brave as were their fathers.
And my four green fields
Will bloom once again', said she.

74    The Last Rose Of Summer

'Tis the last rose of summer left blooming alone
All her lovely companions are faded and gone
No flower of her kindred, no rosebud is nigh
To reflect back her blushes and give sigh for sigh

I'll not leave thee, thou lone one, to pine on the stem
Since the lovely are sleeping, go sleep thou with them
Thus kindly I scatter thy leaves o'er the bed Where thy mates of the garden lie scentless and dead

So soon may I follow when friendships decay
And from love's shining circle the gems drop away When true hearts lie withered and fond ones are flown
Oh who would inhabit this bleak world alone?

D As I was going over the Bm Cork and Kerry
G mountains
D I met with captain Farrell and his money he was A counting.
D I first produced my pistol, and then produced my Bm rapier.
G Said stand and deliver, for ya are a bold deceiver,
D
A [Chorus] musha ring dumma do damma da
D whack for the daddy 'ol
G whack for the daddy 'ol
D There's whiskey in the A jar D

I counted out his money, and it made a pretty penny.
 I put it in my pocket and I took it home to Jenny.
 She sighed and she swore, that she never would deceive me, but the devil take the women, for they never can be easy
 (Chorus)
 I went into my chamber, a' for to take a slumber,
 I dreamt of gold and jewels and for sure it was no wonder.
 But Jenny took my charges and she filled them up with water,
 Then sent for captain Farrel to be ready for the slaughter.
 (Chorus)
 It was early in the morning, just before I rose to travel,
 The guards were all around me and likewise captain Farrel.
 I first produced my pistol, for she stole away my rapier,
 But I couldn't shoot the water so a prisoner I was taken.
 (Chorus)
 If anyone can aid me, it's my brother in the army,
 I think that he is stationed in Cork or in Killarney.
 And if he'll go with me, we'll go roving near Kilkenny,
 And I swear he'll treat me better than me darlin' sportin' Jenny
 (Chorus)
 Some take delight in the fishin' and the trappin',
 But others take delight in the carriages a-rovin'.
 But me I take delight in the juice of the barley,
 And courting pretty women in the morning bright and early
 (Chorus)

Dearest her constancy, Eileen Aroon

What would her lover do, Eileen Aroon
Fly with a broken chain, far o'er the sounding

Never to love again, Eileen Aroon

77 The Foggy Dew

Bm 'Twas down the glen one A Easter morn
D A Bm To a city fair rode I.
Bm A When armed line of marching men
D A Bm In squadrons passed me by.
D A Bm No pipes did hum, no battle drum
A Bm Did sound its loud tattoo
Bm A But the Angelus bell o'er the Liffey's swell
D Bm Rang out in the (A/Fm) foggy dew.

Right proudly high over Dublin town
They hung out a flag of war.
'Twas better to die 'neath an Irish sky
Than at Suvla or Sud el Bar.
And from the plains of Royal Meath Strong men came hurrying through;
While Britannia's huns with their great big guns Sailed in through the foggy dew.

'Twas England bade our wild geese go
That small nations might be free.
But their lonely graves are by Suvla's waves
On the fringe of the gray North Sea.
But had they died by Pearse's side
Or fought with Cathal Brugha,
Their names we'd keep where the Fenians sleep
'Neath the shroud of the foggy dew.
The night fell black and the rifle crack
Made Perfidious Albion reel
Mid the leaden rain seven tongues of flame Shone out o'er the line of steel
By each shining blade a prayer was said
That to Ireland her sons be true
When the morning broke still the war flag shook Out its folds in the foggy dew.

The bravest fell, and the requiem bell Rang mournfully and clear
For those who died that Eastertide
In the springing of the year.
And the world did gaze with deep amaze
At those fearless men, but few Who bore the fight that freedom's light
Might shine through the foggy dew.

And back through the glen
I rode again and my heart with grief was sore
For I parted then with valiant men
That I shall see no more
But to and fro in my dreams I'll go
And I'll kneel and pray for you
For slavery fled, O glorious Dead,
When you fell in the foggy dew!

78 Marie's Wedding

(Chorus) G Step we gaily on we go
C D Heel for heel and toe for toe
G Arm and arm and row and row
C D All for Marie's wedding

Over hillways, up and down
Myrtle green and bracken brown
Past the sheilings through the town
All for the sake of marie
(Refrain)
Red her cheeks as rowan's are Bright her eyes as any star
Fairest of them all by far
Is our darlin' marie
(Refrain)
Plenty herring, plenty meal
Plenty peat to fill her kreen
Plenty bonnie bairns as well
That's the toast for Marie
(Refrain 2x)

79 Amazing Grace

D      D7      G      D
Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like A me!
D      D7      G      D
I once was lost, but now am found;
Bm      A      D
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me,
His Word my hope secures;
He will my Shield and Portion be,
As long as life endures.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we'd first begun.

80 New York Girls

As I <sup>G</sup>walked down the <sup>C</sup>Broadway one <sup>G</sup>evening in <sup>D</sup>July
I met a maid who asked my trade – A <sup>G</sup>sailor <sup>D</sup>lad <sup>G</sup>says I
To Tiffany's I took her, I did not mind expense An' I bought her two gold ear-rings, and they cost me fifty cents

I joined a yankee slug boat, we're set to sail next morn,
Don't ever mess with women boys, you're safer round cape horn!

| (Chorus)

Repeat 15 more times or so....

<sup>G</sup>O <sup>C</sup>you New York girls, <sup>G</sup>can't you <sup>D</sup>dance the

Says she – You lime-juice sailor, now see me home you may
But when we reached her cottage door, she unto me did say
She says her man's a Yankee, with his hair cut short behind
And he wears a pair of tall sea boots and he sails in the Blackball Line

| (Chorus)

He's homeward bound this evening, and with me he will stay
So get a move on sailor boy, get cracking on your way!

| (Chorus)

I kissed her hard and proper, before her yankee came
So fare ya well you Bowery girl, I know your little game.

| (Chorus)

I wrapped me rags right round me and to the docks did steer.
I'll never court another girl, I'll stick to rum and beer

| (Chorus)

81 Big Rock Candy Mountains

One evening as the sun went down
And the jungle fire was burning,
Down the track came a hobo hiking,
And he said, "Boys, I'm not turning I'm headed for a land that's far away
Besides the crystal fountains
So come with me, we'll go and see
The Big Rock Candy Mountains

In the Big Rock Candy Mountains,
There's a land that's fair and bright,
Where the handouts grow on bushes
And you sleep out every night
Where the boxcars all are empty
And the sun shines every day
On the birds and the bees
And the cigarette trees
The lemonade springs
Where the bluebird sings
In the Big Rock Candy Mountains

In the Big Rock Candy Mountains
All the cops have wooden legs
And the bulldogs all have rubber teeth
And the hens lay soft-boiled eggs
The farmers' trees are full of fruit
And the barns are full of hay
Oh I'm bound to go Where there ain't no snow
Where the rain don't fall
The wind don't blow
In the Big Rock Candy Mountains

In the Big Rock Candy Mountains
You never change your socks
And the little streams of alcohol
Come trickling down the rocks
The brakemen have to tip their hats
And the railroad bulls are blind
There's a lake of stew
And of whiskey, too
You can paddle all around 'em
In a big canoe
In the Big Rock Candy Mountains

In the Big Rock Candy Mountains,
The jails are made of tin
And you can walk right out again,
As soon as you are in
There ain't no short-handled shovels,
No axes, saws or picks,
I'ma goin' to stay
Where you sleep all day,
Where they hung the Turk
That invented work
In the Big Rock Candy Mountains

I'll see you all this coming Fall

82 Take 'Em Away

(Chorus) <sup>G</sup> Take 'em away, <sup>C</sup> take 'em away, Lord
<sup>G</sup> My heart is broken 'cause my spirit's not <sup>C</sup> free
<sup>G</sup> Lord take away these chains from me <sup>D</sup> <sup>G</sup> Some birds' feathers are too bright to be caged
 I know I'm not that colorful but a bird just the same
 Open up your gate now, let me put down my load
 So I can feel at ease and go back to my home
 (Chorus)
 Sun beatin' down, my legs can't seem to stand
 There's a boss man at a turnrow with a rifle in his hand
 I've got nine children, nothin' in the pan
 My wife she died hungry while I was plowin' land
 (Chorus)
 Can't see when I go to work, can't see when I get off
 How do you expect a man not to get lost Every year I just keep getting deeper in debt
 If there's a happy day, Lord, I haven't seen one yet
 (Chorus)
 Land that I love is the land that I'm workin' But it's hard to love it all the time when your back is a-hurtin'
 Gettin' too old now to push this here plow Please let me lay down so I can look at the clouds
 (Chorus)
 Land that I know is where two rivers collide
 The Brazos the Navaho and the big blue sky Flood plains, freight trains, watermelon vines
 Of any place on God's green earth, this is where I choose to die

83 Sally Gardens

<sup>G</sup> <sup>D</sup> <sup>C</sup> <sup>G</sup>
 It was down by the Sally gar—dens
<sup>C</sup> <sup>D</sup> <sup>G</sup>
 My love and I did meet
<sup>G</sup> <sup>D</sup> <sup>C</sup> <sup>G</sup>
 She crossed the Sally gar—dens
<sup>C</sup> <sup>D</sup> <sup>G</sup>
 With little snow—white feet

(Chorus) <sup>G</sup> <sup>C</sup> <sup>D</sup>
 She bid me to take life easy
<sup>Em</sup> <sup>C</sup> <sup>D</sup> <sup>G</sup>
 As the leaves grow on the tree
<sup>Em</sup> <sup>D</sup> <sup>C</sup> <sup>G</sup>
 But I was young and fool—ish
 And with her did not agree

In a field down by the river
 My love and I did stand
 And upon my leaning shoulder
 She laid her snow—white hand

She bid me take life easy
 As the grass grows on the weirs
 But I was young and foolish
 And now I am full of tears

(Repeat 1st verse and refrain)

84 The Black Velvet Band

In a neat little town they called Belfast
Apprentice to trade I was bound
D Bm
And many an hour sweet happiness
G A D
Have I spent in that neat little town
D
As sad misfortune came over me
Which caused me to stray from the land
D Bm
Far away from me friends and relations
G A D
Betrayed by the black velvet band

Her eyes they shown like diamonds
I thought her the queen of the land (And she was!)
D Bm
And her hair, it hung over her shoulder
G A D
Tied up with a black velvet band

I took a stroll down broadway
Meaning not long for to stay
When who should I meet but this pretty fair maid Come a-traipsing along the highway
She was both fair and handsome
Her neck, it was just like a swan
And her hair, it hung over her shoulder
Tied up with a black velvet band
(Chorus)
I took a stroll with this pretty fair maid
And a gentleman passing us by Well, I knew she meant the doing of him
By the look in her roguish black eye
A gold watch she took from his pocket
And placed it right into my hand
And the very first thing that I said, was Bad 'cess to the black velvet band
(Chorus)
Before the judge and the jury
Next morning, I had to appear
The judge, he says to me:
"Young man, you're case it is proven clear Seven long years penal servitude
To be spent far away from the land
Far away from your friends and relations Betrayed by the black velvet band"
(Chorus)
So come all you jolly young fellows
A warning take by me
When you are out on the town, me lads
Beware of the pretty colleens They'll feed you with strong drink (Oh yeah!)
'Till you are unable to stand
And the very first thing that you'll know is You've landed in Van Diemens Land
(Chorus)

Stick him in a barrel with a hosepipe on him
Stick him in a barrel with a hosepipe on him
Stick him in a barrel with a hosepipe on him
Earl-eye in the morning!

Put him the back of the paddy wagon,
Put him the back of the paddy wagon,
Put him the back of the paddy wagon,

86 Loch Tay Boat Song

G When I've done my work of day, Bm
C D G
And I row my boat away,
C G Em
Doon the waters of Loch Tay,
G D C G
As the evening light is fading And I look upon Ben Lawers
Where the after glory glows;
And I think on two bright eyes
And the melting hours below.

G C G
She's my beauteous nighean ruadh,
G C G C
She's my joy and sorrow too; And although she is G Em G D C G
untrue, Well I cannot live without her,
For my heart's a boat in tow,
And I'd give the world to know
Why she means to let me go,
As I sing horee horo.

Nighean ruadh, your lovely hair
Has more glamour I declare Than all the tresses rare
'tween Killin and Aberfeldy.
Be they lint white, brown or gold,
Be they blacker than the sloe,
They are worth no more to me
Than the melting flake of snow.
Her eyes are like the gleam
O' the sunlight on the stream;
And the songs the fairies sing
Seem like songs she sings at milking.
But my heart is full of woe,
For last night she bade me go
And the tears begin to flow,
As I sing horee, horo.

87 Dooley

<sup>G</sup> Dooley was a <sup>C</sup> good old man <sup>G</sup> He lived below the <sup>D</sup> mill <sup>G</sup> Dooley had two daughters and a <sup>C</sup> forty gallon still <sup>G</sup> One gal watched the boiler the other watched the spout
Mama corked the bottles when old Dooley fetched them out

(Chorus) <sup>G</sup> Dooley, slipping up the holler <sup>C</sup> Dooley, trying to make a dollar <sup>G</sup> Dooley, give me a swaller and I'll <sup>D</sup> pay you back some day

The revenuers came for him a slipping through the woods
Dooley kept behind them all and never lost his goods
Dooley was a trader when into town he'd come Sugar by the bushel and molasses by the ton
(Chorus)
I remember very well the day old Dooley died
The women folk looked sorry and the men stood
'round and cried
Now Dooley's on the mountain he lies there all alone
They put a jug beside him and a barrel for a stone
(Chorus)

88 Rose Red Round

Rose, Rose, Rose red,
Will I ever see thee wed?
I will marry at thy will, sire
At thy will.

Ding ding ding dong
Wedding bells on an April morn'
Carve thy name on a moss covered stone
On a moss covered stone.

Heigh-ho, nobody home
Meat, nor drink, nor money have I none.
Yet I will be merry.
Heigh-ho, Heigh-ho.

Little bird
Take thy flight,
High above the sorrows
Of this dark night.

89 The Parting Glass

Of all the money that e'er I had
I spent it in good company
And all the harm I've ever done
Alas, it was to none but me
And all I've done for want of wit
To memory now I can't recall
So fill to me the parting glass
Good night and joy be with you all

Of all the comrades that e'er I had They're sorry for my going away
And all the sweethearts that e'er I had They'd wish me one more day to stay
But since it fell into my lot
That I should rise and you should not I'll gently rise and softly call
"Good night and joy be with you all"

If I had money enough to spend
And Leisure time to stay awhile,
There is a fair maid in this town
Who surely has my heart beguiled
Her rosy cheeks and ruby lips
My own, she has my heart enthralled
So I'll gently rise and softly call "Goodnight and joy to be with you all."

90     Annie Laurie

<sup>G</sup>Maxwellton braes are bonnie, <sup>G</sup>Where early fa's the dew, <sup>G</sup>And 'twas there that Annie Laurie <sup>G</sup>Gave me her promise true.
<sup>D7</sup>Gave me her promise true, <sup>D7</sup>Which ne'er forgot will be, <sup>C</sup>And for bonnie Annie Laurie, <sup>D</sup>I lay me doon and dee.

Her brow is like the snowdrift,
Her neck is like a swan,
Her face it is the fairest
That e'er the sun shone on.
That e'er the sun shone on,
And dark blue is her ee,
And for bonnie Annie Laurie
I lay me doon and dee.

Like dew on th' gowan lying,
Is the fa' o' her fairy feet,
And like winds in summer sighing
Her voice is low and sweet.
Her voice is low and sweet,
And she's a' the world to me,
And for bonnie Annie Laurie,
I lay me doon and dee.

91     Lord Franklin

<sup>C</sup>It was homeward bound one night on <sup>Am</sup>the deep <sup>F</sup>Swinging in my hammock I fell asleep <sup>C</sup>I dreamed a dream and I thought it true <sup>F</sup>Concerning Franklin and his gallant crew

With one hundred seamen he sailed away
To the frozen ocean in the month of May
To seek a passage around the pole
Where we poor seamen do sometimes go

Through cruel hardships they mainly strove Their ship on mountains of ice was drove Only the Eskimo with his skin canoe
Was the only one that ever came through

In Baffin's Bay where the whale fish blow
The fate of Franklin no man may know
The fate of Franklin no tongue can tell Lord Franklin along with his sailors do dwell

And now my burden it gives me pain
For my long lost Franklin I'd cross the main Ten thousand pounds I would freely give
To say on earth that my Franklin do live

92 Roddy McCorley

O see the fleet-foot host of men, who speed with faces drawn,
From farmstead and from fishers' hut, along the banks of Ban;
They come with vengeance in their eyes. Too late! Too late are they,

For young Roddy McCorley goes to die on the bridge of Toome today.

Up the narrow street he stepped, smiling, proud and young.
About the hemp-rope on his neck, the golden ringlets clung;
There's ne'er a tear in his blue eyes, both glad and bright are they,

As young Roddy McCorley goes to die on the bridge of Toome today.

When he last stepped up that street, his shining pike in hand
Behind him marched, in grim array, a stalwart earnest band.
To Antrim town! To Antrim town, he led them to the fray,

As young Roddy McCorley goes to die on the
bridge of Toome today.

There's never a one of all your dead more bravely fell in fray
Than he who marches to his fate on the bridge of Toome today;
True to the last! True to the last, he treads the upwards way,

And young Roddy McCorley goes to die on the bridge of Toome today.

And young Roddy McCorley goes to die on the
bridge of Toome today.

93 Danny Boy

Oh, Danny boy, the pipes, the pipes are calling From glen to glen, and down the mountain side.
The summer's gone, and all the roses falling,
It's you, it's you must go and I must bide.

But come ye back when summer's in the meadow,
Or when the valley's hushed and white with snow,
It's I'll be here in sunshine or in shadow,
Oh, Danny boy, oh Danny boy, I love you so!

But when ye come, and all the flowers are dying,
If I am dead, as dead I well may be,
You'll come and find the place where I am lying,
And kneel and say an Ave there for me.

And I shall hear, though soft you tread above me,
And all my grave will warmer, sweeter be,
For you will bend and tell me that you love me,
And I shall sleep in peace until you come to me!

As I walk the road from Killeshandra, weary, I sat down
For it's twelve long miles around the lake to get to Cavan Town
Though Oughter and the road I go once seemed beyond compare
Now I curse the time it takes to reach my Cavan girl, so fair

The Autumn shades are on the leaves, the trees will soon be bare Each red-coat leaf around me seems the colour of her hair
My gaze retreats, defies my feet, and once again I sigh
As the broken pool of sky reminds the colour of her eyes

At the Cavan cross each Sunday morning, where she can be found
And she seems to have the eye of every boy in Cavan Town
If my luck will hold I'll have the golden summer of her smile
And to break the hearts of Cavan men she'll talk to me a while

So next Sunday evening finds me homeward, Killeshandra bound
To work the week 'til I return to court in Cavan
Town
When asked if she would be my bride, at least she'd not say no
So next Sunday morning I'll rouse myself and back to her, I'll go
